

On the Rio Grande.

This evening the emotional sensational drama will be produced with a formidable company and repeated on Thursday evening.

Investing.

It has been decided to invest the Logan fund in U. S. four-per-cent bonds, and Capt. Geo. E. Lemon will purchase at once, as the first installment, $20,000 worth of such bonds, have them registered in Mrs. Logan's name and deliver them to her. A subscription of $1,000 was yesterday received from Montreal.

The New Judiciary.

The newly elected District Judges met at Carson Monday and elected Richard Rising as presiding Judge. The work was divided as follows: Rising to take Storey, Ormsby, Douglas, Lyon and Esmeralda, with his residence at Virginia City; Bigelow takes Washoe, Churchill, Lander, Nye and Elko, with his residence at Reno, and Fitzgerald takes the other counties, with his residence at Eureka.

Complimented Democrats.

Senator Westerfield of Lyon received the complimentary vote of the Democrats of the Senate for the office of President pro tem, and Assemblyman Pike of Churchill received the complimentary vote of his Democratic colleagues for Speaker of the House. These gentlemen have been active partisans and exponents of pure and unadulterated Democracy for many years and the tribute was a political courtesy to the recipients.

—Room to rent within one block of the Capitol. Inquire at this office. *

—DIED—In Carson City, Jan. 4th, Edward Murphy, son of Gen. Murphy.

—Blumenthal and Cohn have received a new consignment of Federal and other hats.

—The proposition of Mr. Drury to have an Irrigation Committee appointed meets with general favor.

—The ladies of the Episcopal church are arranging to hold a sociable at Armory Hall some evening next week.

—It was funny to see Powning flitting about yesterday trying to button hole the members. Even Democrats avoided him.

—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is recommended by physicians of the greatest eminence on both sides of the Atlantic, as the most reliable remedy for colds and coughs, and all pulmonary disorders. It affords prompt relief in every case. No family should ever be without it.

—Health is impossible when the blood is impure; thick, and sluggish or when it is thin and impoverished. Under such conditions, boils, pimples, headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, and one disease after another is developed. Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and it will make the blood pure, rich, warm, and vitalizing.

Among all the attaches of the present Legislature one little Democrat "slipped in." He was Isador Jacobs of this city, whose little brother Sammy Jacobs was two years ago a playmate of Senator Briggs' little boy Yates, both of whom are now dead. Senator Briggs made a pathetic appeal on behalf of the brother of his son's playmate and thereby secured his election. Isador is a bright boy and intelligent enough to reform his politics when he gets older.

Rooms to Let.

Two furnished rooms to let, in a desirable location. Inquire at this office. Dec. 23, 1w

STEWART WINS.

He is the Choice of the Republican Caucus.

The Republican caucus adjourned last night at 9 o'clock. The vote on the Senatorship stood: Stewart, 34; Wren, 9; Powning, 1. Fish placed Powning in nomination but no one seconded it. After the result was announced Stewart's rooms were filled with friends congratulating him on his victory.

The Governor's Message.

STATE OF NEV., EXEC. DEPT.
CARSON CITY, Nevada,
January 3rd, 1887.

GENTLEMEN OF THE LEGISLATURE:—Upon taking the official oath as your Chief Executive officer, and entering upon the duties of that responsible office for the next four years, it is becoming that I return my grateful acknowledgments, through you, to my general constituency, and assure you, as well as them, that no effort on my part shall be spared to do my whole duty. Every interest of the State, so far as the Executive Branch of the government can do so, shall be fostered and encouraged.

The duties of the Executive are not lightly assigned; on the contrary, they are entered upon with a serious appreciation of their gravity, and, on that account, your support and co-operation are earnestly requested.

I congratulate you upon the favorable auspices under which you have met and organized; which I am pleased to predict, will be a pleasant and profitable session of your Honorable Bodies.

The Constitution makes it my duty, and it will be my pleasure, to give you such information as shall come to my knowledge, from time to time, respecting the condition of the State, and its need of action on your part, to the end that I may, if possible, aid you in the performance of the arduous duties for which you were elected.

The electors of the several counties of the State, in selecting you to exercise the law-making power, have reposed confidence in your honesty and ability, and have endorsed your fidelity to a most sacred trust—the proper discharge of the duties for which you are assembled in this Capitol. Knowing many of you personally, I feel assured that you will carefully consider the interests of the State at large, and legislate in such a manner as to most successfully conserve them, so that, when you return to your homes, your constituents may welcome you as faithful servants.

I cannot close this brief Inaugural and feel that I have done my duty without honorable mention of my predecessor, Governor Adams, always kind and courteous, was never more so than he has been to his successor. It would be a pleasure at any time to thank him for this, but it is especially so when it is recalled that we were opposed to each other in a heated political contest, in which, however, no unkind or offensive words were uttered by either respecting the other. I hope there remain in store for my predecessor many years of healthful, happy and useful life.

Very respectfully,
Your obt. Servant,
C. C. STEVENSON,
Governor.

A Man of heart.

Some months ago an old gentleman who was converted to Henry George's land theories, made a will bequeathing to George $7,000 cash. The widow of the deceased was only allowed $3,000.

She wrote a letter to George stating that she had a large family and that $3,000 would not go far and closed by asking George to relinquish all claim on the $7,000, but added that if he insisted on his legal rights she would make no further effort. George answered her letter and relinquished all his rights.

Any one who ever knew Henry George personally will not be surprised at his generous, manly act.

Enlargement.

The Lyon County Times comes to hand with the new year, considerably enlarged. The Times had a hard struggle through the campaign against Democratic opposition, but it made a gallant fight for the ticket, and the Republicans of Lyon are rewarding it by substantial patronage. It is a credit to Lyon county, and all good party men will be glad to know that the party proposes to sustain it.
